CONSTITUTION AND RULES OF THE AUSTRALIAN SUFFOLK ASSOCIATION (INC.)

1 NAME

The name of the Association is the "THE AUSTRALIAN SUFFOLK ASSOCIATION".

2 OBJECTS

The objects of the Association shall be :-

- a) the encouragement of the breeding and improvement of Australian Suffolk sheep;
- b) by judicious publicity, to keep the merits of the breed before the public;
- c) the arrangement of classes at various shows and the recommendation of persons who, in the opinion of the Committee, are suitable for inspecting and judging Australian Suffolk sheep to the Agricultural Societies and others requiring such persons;
- d) (Deleted by resolution of a special meeting of the Association on 25th February 1991);
- e) to co-operate in every way possible with the Australian Society of Breeders of British Sheep and in particular to give assistance in regard to putting into force any rule safe guarding the purity of the breed;
- f) to promote fellowship amongst the Suffolk Sheep Breeders of Australia, and to further their mutual interests generally in so far as the breeding of sheep is concerned, and in all matters affecting the sheep industry;
- g) to establish relationships and to encourage exchanges with other organizations having similar objects, throughout the world;
- h) to do all such other lawful things that are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects

3 POWERS

In pursuance of its objects the powers of the Association shall include the following -

- a) to make regulations and by-laws not inconsistent with this constitution for the conduct and guidance of members and for the carrying out of the objects of the Association;
- b) to collect and establish funds, which are to be applied for the attainment of the Association's objects;
- c) to acquire by purchase lease or otherwise land, buildings, plant, equipment, goods, chattels and effects and all other real and personal estate in the name of the Association and for the purposes thereof and to let, sell, mortgage or dispose of and otherwise deal with the same and for such purposes to execute all such transfers, deeds, mortgages, assurances, instruments, writings and things as may be necessary or desirable;
- d) to borrow or raise and give security for money by the issue of or upon bonds, debentures, debentures stock, bills of exchange, promissory notes or other obligations or securities of the Association or by mortgage or charge upon all or any part of the property of the Association or without security and upon such terms as to priority or otherwise as the Committee shall think fit provided that the total amount of borrowing in excess of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1,000) in any financial year shall first be approved by the Association in general meeting provided that no money in excess of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($1,000) shall be borrowed except upon security of some realizable asset of the Association.
- e) to employ officers and employees and to pay them salaries, wages, gratuities and pensions.

4 NON-PROFIT MAKING

The income and property of the Association when so ever derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects as set forth in this constitution and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever to its members provided that nothing herein shall prevent the payment in good faith or remuneration to any officer or servant of the Association for services actively rendered to the Association.

5 MEMBERSHIP

- a) An auditor shall be appointed and his remuneration fixed at each Annual General Meeting provided however that no Auditor so appointed being a member shall be entitled to be remunerated for his service;
- b) An Auditor appointed under this rule shall, subject to sub-rule (d) hereof hold office until the next Annual General Meeting;
- c) Any member who is a member of the Committee shall not be eligible for appointment;
- d) An Auditor may be removed from office during his term of office by resolution of members at an ordinary general meeting of which special notice has been given but not otherwise;
- e) If an Auditor shall be removed from office under sub-rule (d) of this Rule, another Auditor may be appointed to fill the office at the same general meeting at which the previous Auditor was removed and the Auditor so appointed shall hold office until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting but if no appointment is made the position shall be deemed a casual vacancy;
- f) The Committee may fill any casual vacancy arising by the death, resignation or determination of appointment of an Auditor previously appointed but subject to ratification by the Association at any ordinary general meeting;
- g) It shall be the duty of the Auditor so appointed at least once in every year to audit the accounts and other financial records of the Association and to report to members at every balance sheet, profit and loss account and trading account presented to members in general meeting and every such report shall state whether in the opinion of the Auditor -
  - (i) such balance sheet and accounts are properly drawn up so as to give a true and fair view of the state of the Association's affairs, and
  - (ii) the accounting and other records examined have been properly kept;
- h) Every Auditor duly appointed as such shall have access to the accounting and other financial records of the Association and to the minutes of meetings of the Committee and may require from any executive officer of the Association such information and explanations as he may reasonably require for the performance of his duties;
- i) Every duly appointed Auditor whether a member or not shall be entitled to receive all notices of and other communications relating to any general meeting of members and every Auditor not being a member shall have the right to attend any such meeting and to be heard on any business of the meeting that may concern him as an Auditor;
- j) No officer member or employee of the Association shall hinder, obstruct or delay a duly appointed Auditor in the performance of his duties.

23 FINANCIAL YEAR

The financial year of the Association shall end upon the 31st August in each year.

24 INTERPRETATION OF RULES

Any question or questions from time to time arising as to the interpretation of these rules or any question arising on any subject within scope of the Associations authority not otherwise provided for, shall be decided by the Committee, whose decision in all such cases shall be final and binding on all members.

25 HONORARY MEMBERS

At the Annual General Meeting any person who the Association considers to have advanced the interests of the Association may be elected as an honorary member.

26 ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

Associate membership will be made available to interested persons subject to the discretion of the Committee of the Association.

27 ALTERATION OF CONSTITUTION AND RULES

The constitution of the Association shall not be altered unless notice of the proposed alteration shall have been given to the Secretary in writing at least thirty days prior to the meeting of the meeting of the Society at which the alteration is to be considered. The secretary is then to give at least twenty one (21) clear days notice to each member of the Society of the proposed alteration. A motion proposing an alteration is to be carried by two-thirds majority of the members present at the meeting of the members of the Association.

28 COMMON SEAL

There shall be a common seal of the Association which shall be in the custody of the Secretary or authorized persons. All deeds instruments and other documents required to be executed by or for or on behalf of the Association shall be executed by the common seal being affixed thereto and by at least two office bearers signing such deeds, instrument or document.

29 WINDING UP THE ASSOCIATION

In the event of the winding up of the Association, the funds and property shall be disposed of as the Committee shall direct, having due regard for the interests of the members of the Association.

- * (At a special meeting of the Society held on 25th February 1991, the resolution was passed that all references to Auditor in this constitution be replaced by the word EXAMINER.)
- * These alterations to the constitution were lodged with the Department of Corporate Affairs in March, 1991.
- ** The name change and alterations to clause 26 was lodged with the Commissioner of Corporate Affairs on 9th July, 1991. New certificate of name registration received 19th July, 1991.
